

Apple varieties found in Washington County, Maryland

Cameo – A modern sweet variety similar to the Red Delicious apple

Empire – A crisp, juicy, sweet-tart flavor, these apples are ideal for eating fresh

Fuji – Delightfully sweet and crisp, this apple is perfect for snacking, making appetizing salads, pies and sauces

Gala – One of the most widely grown apples, Gala's are crisp, juicy, very sweet and great for snacking

Golden Delicious – Truly an all-purpose apple, Golden's are great for baking, making into applesauce, and eaten fresh

Granny Smith – The most recognizable of apples, Granny Smith's have a crisp texture and tart flavor, and is truly an all-purpose apple

Jonagold – A crisp, honey, tart flavor, Jonagold is a popular commercial variety suitable for eating fresh or cooking

Mutsu – Also known as "Crispin," the Mutsu is a versatile apple, looks like a Golden Delicious apple with a sweet, honey flavor

Red Delicious – One of the most famous of the American apple variety, these apples are deep red and mildly sweet

Rome – A round, plump red cooking apple, this variety is extremely attractive and productive, and widely-grown in North America

Stayman – An old American dual purpose apple, this variety is tart and keeps very well

York – A great apple for baking, they hold their shape, they aren't too tart but also not too sweet